Highlights

Townline Shopping Centre is a well-established grocery anchored Strip Centre located in the vibrant community of Courtice, within the Region of Clarington. Positioned strategically at the intersection of two high-traffic roads, the Centre offers maximum visibility and accessibility. Townline Shopping Centre serves as a key commercial hub for the local population, offering a wide range of services. This diverse mix of tenants ensures that the community has access to essential services, retail options, and dining opportunities. Available units offer opportunities for medical or service-based businesses, contributing to the overall health and well-being of the community.

- The Centre features a strong lineup of anchors, including a prominent grocery store (FreshCo), a financial institution (Meridian Credit Union), a restaurant (Chuck's Roadhouse), a pet supply store (Pet Valu), and medical services provided by Lakeridge Health.
- The presence of recognizable brands enhances the center's appeal and draws foot traffic.
- Townline Shopping Centre provides hassle-free parking for visitors including both surface and covered parking areas.
- Located in close proximity to established new-build residential areas, creating a steady customer base.
